Managing People Through Change

This session provides managers with insights they need to help people deal with change in the workplace and change in their personal lives that impinge on work. By understanding the stages of change and how people progress through each stage, participants learn how to support and understand the behavior and feelings of the people they lead, allowing for a higher level of productivity in a shorter timeframe.

Registration may close 72 hours prior to a training session. Cancellations received up to 10 calendar days prior to the training session or beginning of the training series are refundable, less an administrative/materials fee. After that time, cancellations are subject to the registration fee.
